

Trendsetting Metropark Stores Feature Hip Aromatherapy Gift Line

Metropark, a trendsetting chain of over 26 stores nationwide, has picked up Aromatherapy Interventions™ soy candles, a hip aromatherapy line targeted to Generation Y.

Newport Beach, CA, December 13, 2007 --(PR.com)-- Metropark, a trendsetting chain of over 26 stores nationwide, has picked up Aromatherapy Interventions™ soy candles, a hip aromatherapy line targeted to Generation Y.

Metropark stores will feature Placebo, a holiday spiced vanilla, Quarter Life Crisis, an upbeat citrus and mint, and Panic Attack, a mellow frankincense with woody florals.

“The Quarter Life Crisis candle.” explains Aromatherapy Interventions' writer Ross Robert,” is for those of us underemployed, living at home and stuck in vocational limbo.” The package reads “you're optimistic about the future, just not ready to commit to it.

The complete product line of 23 soy blend candles can be viewed at:
www.aromatherapyinterventions.com

The Aromatherapy Interventions web site also provides wholesale order information to the trade, description and content of each candle, and a display of the merchandising program.

Aromatherapy Interventions™ is a California based company producing hand-poured aromatherapy candles: all scents, glass, cotton wicks, soy wax, packaging and printing are solely derived in the USA.

Aromatherapy Interventions Contact:
John McKee, 800 659 8770
Fax: 800 659 3242
Email: john@aromatherapyinterventions.com

###

Contact Information:

Aromatherapy Interventions

John McKee

800 659 8770

john@aromatherapyinterventions.com

aromatherapyinterventions.com

Online Version of Press Release:

You can read the online version of this press release at: <http://www.pr.com/press-release/63804>

News Image:

