By reading the information on this new website plus downloading their free Financial "Check up" forms, you can take the first step to protecting the seniors you love from becoming a victim of a investment scam. This site is dedicated to exposing fraud, protecting investment scam victims, and uncovering financial crime against the elderly.

Los Angeles, CA, December 15, 2007 --(PR.com)-- Their purpose is to educate a specific sector of America's Senior Citizen Population;

THE UNSOPHISTICATED MAJORITY

80% of the older folks in America today are in this group.

Due to their trusting nature, these seniors are the perfect target for money fraud schemes and scam artists.

This website reveals "Insider Secrets" that tell all on the unscrupulous practices of fake financial advisors who prey on the elderly using free Seminars and other financial scams designed to clean out a senior's life savings and retirement accounts.
