

Stacie Dale Designs Inc. Offers Heirloom Quality Keepsakes

Philadelphia area, Stacie Dale Designs Inc., offers both wholesale and retail customers high quality heirloom keepsake chests. Each chest is lovingly hand painted to customer specifications in the Pennsylvania studio. Custom designs are available for wedding, baby and specialty gifts and are available at fine online retailers and at <http://www.staciedaledesigns.com>

Audubon, PA, December 15, 2007 --(PR.com)-- Stacie Dale Designs Inc. recently added a wholesale line of keepsake chests to expand the existing company owned website sales. The addition of a wholesale line lends itself to the popular online retail business of baby and wedding gifts. Since the inception of the wholesale line, sixteen popular online retailers have added Stacie Dale Designs offerings to their website selections.

Owned and operated by artist, Stacie Dale, <http://www.staciedaledesigns.com> offers customers a wide variety of design options and custom designs are always welcome. Each of the keepsake chests created by Stacie Dale is lovingly hand painted in her Pennsylvania studio and is made of 100% poplar wood for a lifetime of use. Customers may select a keepsake chest for a one-of-a-kind wedding or baby gift or to commemorate another special event.

Stacie prides herself on keeping up with current trends in design but also works to incorporate the traditions and ideas of her customers into the finished product. As an award winning designer, Stacie approaches each project with great attention to detail and demands a high quality finished product.
