

Online Casino Heist Performed by 70-Year Old Grandfather

A 70-year old grandfather of three is being hailed a hero by silver surfers everywhere after repeatedly beating the roulette tables at the world's oldest online casino, InterCasino.

York, United Kingdom, December 22, 2007 --(PR.com)-- Leslie Perrott, a coach trimmer from East Sussex, showed the younger generation of online gamers how it's done by winning over £360,000 in the space of 10 days on www.intercasino.co.uk.

In scenes reminiscent of Hollywood blockbuster Ocean's Thirteen, the quick-witted grandfather had InterCasino bosses scratching their heads as his roulette numbers kept coming up.

"I'm absolutely delighted with the win" said Mr Perrott "I plan to treat my family to very generous Christmas presents."

So, what was the secret to Mr Perrott's success at InterCasino's online roulette tables? "I don't want to reveal too much about my winning roulette formula" he said, "but keeping up with modern technology and being both physically and mentally active has definitely stood me in good stead."

Spokesperson for InterCasino, Peter Marcus said, "I'm delighted Mr Perrott has kept up the long tradition of big winners at InterCasino; only recently we gave away over £4 Million to a player, which was the biggest online casino jackpot payout in history, so this a relatively small hit for us."
