

I'm Not Obsessed Releases the Results of The Obsessies 2007, an Entertainment/Celebrity Gossip Year-End Poll

Imnotobsessed.com, a work and home friendly celebrity gossip website reaching millions of viewers per month, has published the results of their first annual reader poll, The Obsessies.

Garden City, NY, January 03, 2008 --(PR.com)-- Having 2,784 participants, the poll covered topics ranging from favorite celebrity mom to biggest mess of the year.

“My readers constantly poke fun at online poll results as the majority of winners make no sense” said site owner, Vera Sweeney. “I thought 'what better way to end the year than to create a poll of our own where we vote in who really belongs on top'.”

The poll results represent something greater than simply wrapping up 2007's celebrity “winners and losers.” For each reader that participated in the survey, I'm Not Obsessed will donate $1 to The Girl Scout/Dove Self-Esteem Program, “uniquely ME!”

About I'm Not Obsessed:

Imnotobsessed.com was formed in December of 2005. From its inception, the site has offered gossip readers an online haven in which stories are timely, entertaining, respectful, and clean for viewing either at home or at work. After several years of reporting pop culture news, current fashion trends (e.g., what celebrities are wearing and how to replicate the look for less), and publishing the latest paparazzi photos, the website serves a significant portion of today's Internet gossip seekers. Content is updated several times a day, seven days a week, every day of the year. The website receives over 5.3 million page views per month.
