Outside the Lines, Inc and WineAndHospitalityJobs.com announce the addition of two new sections to their popular industry job board, WineAndHospitalityJobs.com. The sections, titled “Surveys” & “Industry Blogs” were added as a free service to their clientele, which consists mostly of wine, restaurant and hotel industry professionals.

Sonoma, CA, January 08, 2008 --(PR.com)-- While OTL consults on, creates and deploys guest service satisfaction and employee satisfaction surveys for clients, they also conduct free brief surveys on a number of company or employee related topics. OTL's surveys are designed to measure and track trends in the growing and increasingly competitive hospitality industry.

“We have decided to make the results of these in-house surveys available to the public as they provide valuable, real time information on issues that pertain to our industry” says Margie Tosch, founder of OTL & WineAndHospitalityJobs.com. “We feel it's another way to “give back” to our loyal community of employers and job seekers.”

Surfers can click on any survey name to provide feedback & receive the results immediately. Topics covered include training & development, compensation, job seeking, customer service, sexual harassment and human resources. Questions or feedback can be emailed to info@otlconsulting.com.

The new industry blogs page consists of three sections: restaurant blogs, wine blogs and travel & hotel blogs. Linked-to blogs are chosen according to content and relevancy to each industry. Each listing has a link to the blog homepage, along with a brief synopsis of content. This page will be continuously updated and suggestions for recommended blogs can be emailed to info@otlconsulting.com.

Outside the Lines, Inc. specializes in innovative Human Resources, Recruiting, Training and Customer Service Solutions for the Wine & Hospitality Industry. OTL operates the leading industry job board WineAndHospitalityJobs.com.
