

Inland Empire Auto Repair Review Adds Ecommerce Sales Position

Riverside, CA, January 20, 2008 --(PR.com)-- President and co-founder Laura Durbin announced today Aaron Doll will be joining the company in an Ecommerce Sales Consulting role effective January 18th 2008. Mr. Doll served as an Ecommerce Specialist for a Major International Auto Parts Corporation before joining the company.

"I would like to welcome Aaron to the company," said Laura Durbin, President and co-founder of Inland Empire Auto Repair Review. "Ecommerce is such a vital position in our company, and reviewing the solid success Aaron has had with his previous employer, it was an outstanding windfall to have him join our team. Aaron had been instrumental in training as well as moving programs forward at an accelerated pace and at the same time continuing effective relationships with customers in his prior position. We all look forward to the knowledge and professionalism that Aaron will enhance our company with."
