

Sun City Million Dollar King of Poker

The most prestigious poker event in Africa, the Million Dollar Sun City King of Poker Tournament, was held on the weekend at the Palace of the Lost City in South Africa.

Middlesex, United Kingdom, January 31, 2008 --(PR.com)-- The high profile event attracted some of Sun International's most valued guests, high rollers, high profile and international poker players, celebrities, and people that enjoy the excitement of gaming and poker tournaments.

Andreas C won the tournament and $500,000, his brother Fabio C came 2nd and won $150,000, Jamie V came 3rd and won $100,000. Doreen M was the top playing lady, she placed 10th overall and received a 4 carat diamond worth R250 000 as well as her winnings of $12,000. All of our players made it through to the second day and Patrick N placed 25th overall and won $5,000. Congratulations to you all.

Amongst the hills of a volcanic landscape and far away from the maddening crowd the Pilanesberg National Park delighted game viewers eager to spot the Big 5. Specialized guides ensured our guests experienced a true African safari, as they observed the animals wandering unrestricted and free. Other activities also included a visit to the Lion Park, which thrilled many of our players.

Players thoroughly enjoyed their 5 star stay at the Palace of the Lost City, one of the most enticing travelers destinations in the world. With its unique heartbeat and African rhythm the magnificent Palace of the Lost City glitters like a jewel beneath the African sun, brilliant in its rain forest surroundings and luxurious in its detail and design. Our guests were pampered and their every desire met with exquisite accommodation and a variety of entertainment to choose from, making the weekend one they won't easily forget.
