

PokerTime Players Get Jungle Fever

Winning with PokerTime has major perks as was seen in November 2007 when winning PokerTime players secured their places at the Rumble in the Jungle Poker Tournament in Tanzania.

Middlesex, United Kingdom, January 31, 2008 --(PR.com)-- The prestigious event took place at the five star Kapinski Hotel in exotic Dar es Salam where players were treated to twenty-four hour cash games which yielded many wins for the PokerTime players.

This adventure filled trip included visits to some of the world's most spectacular sights and landscapes.

When players managed to tear themselves away from the excitement of the tournament they visited the Ngorongoro Crater, set amongst beautiful backdrops and vegetation engorged with wildlife. The Serengeti National Park formed another leg of the trip. The park, known for its natural beauty and scientific value, added to the magical ambience of the holiday.

At Lake Manyara PokerTime players witnessed the teeming ebb and flow of life which the lake maintains, making even the most light-hearted of minds ponder its wonderment.

The icing on the cake however, had to be the white sands of the Zanzibar beaches. This leg of the trip proved to wrap up the experience in the best way for all the travellers.

Relaxed, refreshed and laden with their tournament winnings, the PokerTime team waved a sad goodbye to their jungle view and headed back home for some more PokerTime plays.
