

Teens to be Treated to Intimate "Conversation with..." Singer Songwriter Randi Driscoll, Interviewed by Radio Personality Midori

Teen Girls can meet Randi Driscoll and 94.9 FM DJ Midori live at Young Women's Leadership Program, which provides Free Training and Development to San Diego's 'emerging and undiscovered' young women. Event date: Saturday, February 2, 2008 9:30 am -11:30am

San Diego, CA, January 30, 2008 --(PR.com)-- Fresh off of last Saturday's sellout benefit at the San Diego Sports Arena, the San Diego-based Jenna Druck Foundation will launch its 2008 Young Women's Leadership Program Saturday morning, February 2nd, from 9:30 to 11:30, at The Liberty Station Command Center.

The event is free to the public, and teen girls from all over San Diego are encouraged to attend to learn more about how they can make a successful career in a creative field.

Saturday's program will feature popular singer-songwriter, Randi Driscoll, best known for her work with Bonnie Raitt and Jason Mraz. "A Conversation with Randi Driscoll" will be offered at no charge to young women, their friends, teachers, mentors and parents and will focus on how girls can live their dream and use their voice to make a positive difference in their school, family, friendships and community.

Popular DJ Midori, who has won acclaim for her "Big Sonic Chill" show on 94.9 FM radio, will interview Driscoll and take questions from the audience. Dr. Ken Druck, Founder of The Jenna Druck Foundation, will also be present to answer questions.

To register for Saturday's event, please call The Jenna Druck Foundation at 619 294-8000. Attendees may be eligible to attend the Jenna Druck Foundation's March 1st Young Women's Leadership Conference.
