

The Inauguration of the World Largest Peace Banner

Washington, DC, February 08, 2008 --(PR.com)-- Tens of thousands of children coming together for the very first time in Hyderabad India, with the World largest peace banner of a hundred and 91 kilometers by the time it is finished which will be signed by millions of children of all nations and will be delivered on September 11, 2008 to the United Nations headquarters. Children will be sending a message of Peace to all 191 nations' Presidents and Prime Ministers, enough is enough no more war. Their wish is that the United State of America will elect a new President who is a person of peace, not a man of war like George W. Bush.

This historic event will be inaugurated on February 9, 2008 at People's Plaza in Hyderabad, India 3:00pm. This event will be attended by hundreds of dignitaries, celebrities, and religious leaders to promote peace. The event and its keynote speaker, Dr. KA Paul, Global Peace Maker will be broadcasted live by several media in India. To become a peace partner please visit www.globalpeacenow.com. Indian children will travel to New York after few stops around the world to personally deliver the Peace banner to the U.N Secretary General.

###

Contact Information:

Global Peace Initiative

Dr. KA Paul

281-324-1818

glopeace@hotmail.com

www.globalpeacenow.com

Online Version of Press Release:

You can read the online version of this press release at: <http://www.pr.com/press-release/71372>