

Kristin Abouelata Home Loan Specialist Joins Mortgage Investors Group as a Mortgage Banking Officer at the Knoxville (Home Office) Branch

Knoxville, TN, February 12, 2008 --(PR.com)-- Mortgage Investors Group is pleased to announce that Kristin Abouelata has come on board as a Mortgage Banking Officer at the Knoxville (Home Office) branch.

Kristin is a native of Maryville, Tennessee, and resident of Knoxville. She is a graduate from Clemson University, South Carolina; receiving her Bachelors Degree in 1987. She has over sixteen years experience in the finance and mortgage lending industry. Kristin is a former Operations Vice President for Mortgage Investors Group, prior to originating loans with GreenBank in 2006. She is a mortgage expert contributor to WBIR's Style Show, news related articles to the Knoxville News Sentinel, Oak Ridge Observer, Blount County Voice, Cocke County Voice and Hellium.com.

Kristin's primary responsibilities are helping prospective borrowers obtain home financing and determining the best possible loan for their specific situation. Her specialties include quick, efficient turn around times, more than competitive rates and programs in residential lending.

Since joining Mortgage Investors Group, Kristin has concentrated on learning more about the company's product portfolio so that she can best serve her customers' needs. "I'm excited to be working at MIG again having spent 15 years here prior. It's good to be home again!"
