

Luxury Auctions International Marketing Team Announces a 350 Acre Parcel Adjacent to Disney That Has Been Placed in the March 15th Luxury Real Estate Auction

Dudley Brown of Luxury Auctions International LLC said this large track of development land so close to Disney will spur interest world wide at the March 15th auction. It's proximity to the Western Beltway 429 will also add interest to this property.

Orlando, FL, February 23, 2008 --(PR.com)-- Gitta Urbainczyk, team leader of Gitta's Real Estate Team (a Keller Williams Heritage Realty team located in Lake Mary, Florida) and Dudley Brown, President of Luxury Auctions International LLC, a Luxury Real Estate Auction Marketing Division within Gitta's Real Estate Team, announced the addition of a 350 acre land parcel located on the West side of Disney and South of the Orange County National Golf Center situated between the Western Beltway 429 and Avalon Rd 545 as being part of the auction. The inclusion of this property along with homes, condos, and other vacant land brings the value of the March 15th auction to well over the $100 million mark.

As the real estate market is creating more and more challenges their luxury portfolio auction marketing company can serve high value projects like the 350 acre track next the Disney by giving this project world wide exposure. Their first major auction will be on the 15th of March at the Wyndham Orlando Resort on International Drive and open to all the brokerages in the Orlando area. More information can be found at the website at www.luxuryauctionsinternational.com or at the Auction Hotline at 888-211-4355.

This auction is open to all brokerages in Orlando and the surrounding counties, they already have Dave Brewer Realty, Coldwell Banker All Star Realty , Keller Williams at the Parks, Keller Williams Celebration, Keller Williams Oviedo and Keller Williams Heritage Realty committed and some of their clients have signed up. By pooling the marketing resources, they are planning to do international advertising in Canada, England and in major news.
