

Search Engine Strategies (SES) and Pepperjam Network Announce the Launch of Exclusive Affiliate Program

Affiliates Earn 5% of All Ticket Sales

New York, NY, February 29, 2008 --(PR.com)-- The Search Engine Strategies Conference & Expo Series (<http://www.searchenginestrategies.com>) and Pepperjam Network (<http://www.pepperjamnetwork.com>) announce today the exclusive launch of the Search Engine Strategies (SES) Affiliate Program, which allows affiliates to promote Search Engine Strategies on a pay-for-performance basis. Through the SES Affiliate Program, participants encourage the purchase of SES conference passes using unique SES banners, text links, and pepperjamADS on their websites. In return, participants receive 5% of each referred sale. To sign up for the SES Affiliate program, all interested parties must register as a publisher on Pepperjam Network here (www.pepperjamnetwork.com/affiliate/registration.php?refid=2425). Pepperjam Network is the brainchild of SES speaker and veteran Internet marketing expert Kristopher B. Jones.

To kick off the launch of the SES Affiliate Program, a contest will be held where the affiliate who generates the most ticket sales between today and the first day of SES New York Conference and Expo (www.SESNewYork.com), March 17, will receive a free full-conference pass to the event or any similar SES event held in 2008. The winning party will also receive an exclusive VIP ticket to the Pepperjam-sponsored SES private dinner party to be held at the Manhattan Penthouse in New York City.

Kristopher B. Jones, President and CEO of Pepperjam Network, said, "Pepperjam Network is honored to launch the Search Engine Strategies Affiliate Program. The SES Affiliate Program provides affiliates and bloggers with the unique ability to promote ticket sales to SES-related events around the world. We are thrilled to be associated with this prestigious program and we look forward to working closely with SES to create a powerful and transparent pay-for-performance sales force."

The largest show in the SES global series and the largest search engine marketing conference and expo globally, SES New York is a once-a-year opportunity for marketers to gain direct counsel and guidance from noted search industry experts. This "must attend" event offers attendees more than 65 sessions across an array of experience levels. These informative sessions range from search fundamentals to tracks that hone in on issues and tools such as social search, retail, advertising, multimedia and contextual ads. In this unique setting, marketers gain invaluable knowledge to keep their company ahead in search engine rankings.

"Our loyal blogger and affiliate community is already second to none," said Matt McGowan, VP of Marketing for Search Engine Strategies, an Incisive Media property. "Search Engine Strategies is always trying to stay ahead of the curve as the leading search engine marketing and search engine optimization show in the industry, so we hope this new endeavor shows our appreciation for the part our affiliates play in our SES community."
