

Fleetline Introduces New Car Lease Offers in 2008 Including the New VW BlueMotion

FleetLine, a company doing business in the field of car leasing in the United Kingdom, announced recently that they will be offering the BlueMotion range from Volkswagen for leasing, pending the release of the car.

Buckinghamshire, United Kingdom, March 04, 2008 --(PR.com)-- FleetLine, a company doing business in the field of car leasing in the United Kingdom, announced recently that they will be offering the BlueMotion range from Volkswagen for leasing, pending the release of the car.

FleetLine has also announced the addition of an array of other new cars for lease. The BlueMotion range, which features the following models - VW Passat, VW Jetta and VW Golf, launched on the 1st of March 2008 and features new innovations including revised aerodynamics, optimised gear ratios, new hard compound tires and more. This news is useful, especially for those who are looking to lease a car in the coming months.

Along with the announcement of the BlueMotion range, seven new cars are also being added to the expanding library of cars available for leasing. They add to the big brands and models already featured on the site, such as BMW and Mercedes Benz. The new cars to be added to the collection are:-

- Audi A4 Saloon
- Ford Focus
- Honda Accord
- Jaguar X-Type
- Mercedes C-class Estate
- Saab 9-3 XWD
- Volvo XC60

These cars comprise quite an expansive range of clientele. FleetLine plans to make these new cars available for all prospective clients soon.

FleetLine also plans to continue in this vein and are looking to release many more cars into their library as soon as they're made available. The new BMW 5 series - which is planned for release in 2009 - is already slated for addition soon after its release. Such planning is required as FleetLine is looking to expand its influence in the executive sector.
