Los Angeles, CA, March 05, 2008 --(PR.com)-- Bath Kitchen and Beyond presents a choice of contemporary bathroom vanities, modern designs, and traditional style bathroom vanities. Bath Kitchen and Beyond is a California based company that has a 6,000 sqft showroom in Northridge that features over 50 different models of bathroom vanities, showers, and kitchens. Internet has made it possible to shop at BathKitchenandBeyond.com for those who live outside of California and cannot make it to the showroom.

Bath Kitchen and Beyond is affiliated with Ardi Intertrade that works closely with top manufacturers around the world to design contemporary bathroom vanities to satisfy an everlasting demand of consumers for something new and fresh. Unlike many other bathroom vanity stores, BathKitchenandBeyond.com listens closely to customers' suggestions and wishes, and works with the manufacturers to build high quality bathroom vanities that are beautiful and functional. Hard work and devotion to this business has made it possible to produce a brand new line of bathroom vanities "Ardi." Those contemporary bathroom vanities are available in several designs, various sizes and different finishes to fit anybody's dream bathroom.

Ardi Intertrade deals directly with manufacturers, which brings in great savings for the company. Those savings are being passed along to the customers, so purchasing direct from BathKitchenandBeyond.com not only gives you an opportunity to choose from a diverse collection of products, but also saves a lot of money.

BathKitchenandBeyond.com has developed a website that is easy to navigate, full of pictures and descriptions of every product, be it a steam shower or bathroom fixtures. Whenever a customer needs more information about the product or needs help choosing a specific model or fixtures for it, a team of professionals is always one phone call or email away.

"We are providing our customers only with the top quality products. We carefully choose the designs and make sure to include traditional, antique, and contemporary bathroom vanities that are available in different materials ranging from wood to glass and porcelain. Then we select fixtures, such as faucets that would suit most of the bathroom vanities that we offer. We make sure to pick only the best quality steam showers, shower enclosures, and toilets to make it a one-stop place for you. We keep our prices low and in addition, we welcome contractors and designers to whom we offer great discounts."

Bath Kitchen and Beyond works closely with contractors and designers, giving them the best deals on most of the products featured in the store, going anywhere from five percent to twenty percent off.
