

7 Year Old Musician and Composer Ethan Bortnick Makes His Second Appearance on the Tonight Show with Jay Leno on March 10, 2008

Ethan will be appearing to promote his newly released DVD and CD - "Live in Concert By Me Ethan Bortnick."

Miami, FL, March 07, 2008 --(PR.com)-- Young Musician, Pianist, Composer Ethan Bortnick will be on a promotional tour, promoting the in-store release of his first ever live DVD titled "Live in Concert - 'By Me' - Ethan Bortnick." Ethan is making history as the youngest entertainer, composer and musician to record a DVD with his own live concert for worldwide distribution.

The first stop is the Tonight Show with Jay Leno on March 10, 2008. Ethan will be chatting with Jay Leno and then performing some of his pieces from the DVD.

Ethan has performed solo concerts and has also performed for live audiences of over 20,000 people on many occasions. Ethan has wowed audiences with his skills and personality and has played to the astonishment of Patti LaBelle, Jay Leno, Cameron Diaz, Diane Sawyer, Nelly Furtado, Jason Alexander, Rush Limbaugh, Pamela Anderson, Martha Stewart, John Voight, and many more musicians and celebrities.

"Ethan has the makings of a virtuoso; he has perfect pitch, plays over 200 songs from memory, and exhibits extreme improvisational skills," says producer and Managing Partner of Savor Records, Lily Saborit.

www.EthanBortnick.com

###

Contact Information:

Ethan Bortnick
Hannah Bortnick
954-609-9609
gene@directforsale.com
www.ethansmusic.com

Online Version of Press Release:

You can read the online version of this press release at: <http://www.pr.com/press-release/75412>

News Image:

