

Trinity Church Photography Exhibit and Sale

Trinity Church invites you to an evening of wine, cheese, and special desserts along with beautiful photographs of the historic Trinity Episcopal Church building on Friday, April 11, 2008 at 7:30 p.m. Cost is $10.00 at the door.

Moorestown, NJ, March 11, 2008 --(PR.com)-- On Friday, April 11, 2008, Trinity Episcopal Church invites you to an evening of sparkling company and light refreshments as you look over the beautiful photographs for bidding and sale to support the Trinity Episcopal Church. All proceeds will benefit Trinity Episcopal Church. The artwork has been created from photographs taken over the course of the past couple years in preparation for this festive evening. There will be blank note cards, large glycee prints, and also a coffee table book available for the ordering during this evening. All photographs have been taken by Dawn Fuss of House of Sampson Creations, located in Moorestown, NJ. Dawn has been invited back to participate at the Fine Art Festival in Riverton this coming spring, and you will be able to see her work there. The images will reflect the beauty of the English Countryside Churches recreated, here, in Moorestown. The history of this beautiful building will also be explained in the coffee table book along with the images from the evenings larger photographs. The evening is one that has been long awaited. Bring your cheque book, and plan to attend and wonderful evening of classic English architecture and wonderful, friendly people.

###

Contact Information:

House of Sampson Creations
Dawn Fuss
856-727-4140
dawn_fuss@hotmail.com
Trinity Episcopal Church
856-235-0811

Online Version of Press Release:

You can read the online version of this press release at: <http://www.pr.com/press-release/75901>

News Image:

