

John S. Brana - Distinctive Jewelry – Introduces the Nob Hill Filigree Jewelry Collection

John S. Brana - Distinctive Jewelry adds an eighth collection of one-of-a-kind filigree earrings to his diverse line of San Francisco inspired wearable art jewelry.

San Francisco, CA, March 11, 2008 --(PR.com)-- Introducing the Nob Hill Filigree Jewelry Collection by John S. Brana - Distinctive Jewelry. This collection features the most open, airy and delicate wirework designs yet available by the San Francisco-based handcrafted jewelry designer. Inspired by the iron scrollwork of entrance gates dotting the famous Nob Hill neighborhood, John S. Brana has created this collection featuring pure and sterling silver and 14K gold and gold-filled one-of-a-kind earrings.

The Nob Hill Collection is the latest addition to Brana's distinct line of limited-edition jewelry and wearable art collections each as different as their San Francisco neighborhood namesakes. Featuring pure silver and 14K gold intricate wirework designs outlined in sterling silver or 14K gold-filled unique rounded shapes, these earrings evoke an appreciation for detail and fine craftsmanship reminiscent of the Victorian era of architecture. Filigree necklace, bracelet and ring designs will soon be available.

John S. Brana- Distinctive Jewelry collections also include:

- Barbary Coast- a dramatic and colorful display of layering semiprecious gemstones and metals
- Sea Cliff- surprisingly elegant life-like art pieces of metal-casted marine elements
- Pacific Heights- large faceted solo gemstones encased in elaborate 14K gold-filled settings
- Monterrey- brightly colored Italian mesh metal intertwined through hammered silver shapes and links
- Sonoma- chainmail jewelry dripping with berry-like, cascading stones
- SoMa- Chic hammered and sculpted metal statement pieces in copper, silver and gold
- And the Men's silver-cast jewelry collection featuring cuff-links, bold rings, textured pendent shapes and minimalist silver bracelets.
