

Nobel Announces New Customer Programs

Nobel has recently introduced new online features for its customers.

Hamilton, Bermuda, March 15, 2008 --(PR.com)-- Nobel, the leader in prepaid phone cards online, has launched the “Initial order discount” program and has improved the “Corporate Accounts” one.

“Initial order discount” is a program created for new customers at NobelCom.com and EnjoyPrepaid.com. Not only will these customers benefit from superior connectivity and quality of service but they will also receive a gift from Nobel in the form of a discount.

“Corporate Accounts” is targeting any business in need of long distance solutions. This program was improved and redesigned so as to offer various discounts and promotions. For example, the IRS recognized not-for-profit organizations will benefit from an extra 3% discount on all their purchases. The “Corporate Accounts” program is available at EnjoyPrepaid.com.

“I am very happy with the new programs: “Initial order discount” and “Corporate Accounts” for NobelCom and EnjoyPrepaid. I hope these improvements will reach thousands of potential customers, providing them the perfect solution for their calling needs. We are constantly rewarding our loyal customers but we also want to reach prospective shoppers. We will strive to provide an even greater service in terms of quality and affordability.” said Johanna Florea, VP of Business Development.

NobelCom.com and EnjoyPrepaid.com provides online customers with a secure way to purchase affordable, easy-to-use prepaid phone cards and calling cards. Nobel's innovative business strategies and advanced technologies have made NobelCom a leading online retailer in prepaid communication. Their achievements were recognized over the time by two of the most prestigious publications, Inc. 500 Magazine and Kiplinger's.
