

Arik Kislin Joins Be'er Hagolah Institutes' Board of Directors

Be'er Hagolah Institutes announced today that Arik Kislin, a New York-based entrepreneur and real estate developer, has joined its Board of Directors.

New York, NY, March 25, 2008 --(PR.com)-- Arik Kislin Joins Be'er Hagolah Institutes' Board of Directors; Longtime supporter to serve in an advisory capacity.

Be'er Hagolah Institutes announced today that Arik Kislin, a New York-based entrepreneur and real estate developer, has joined its Board of Directors. In this capacity Kislin will advise the board on financial and administrative issues related to the management of the community-based educational organization. Arik Kislin is currently principal of Linx Industries, a diversified private investment company.

Pearl Kaufman, Executive Director of Be'er Hagolah Institutes, said, "we are thrilled to have Arik Kislin as a member of the Board of Directors of Be'er Hagolah. Arik is a long time friend of Be'er Hagolah." She added, "Our organization has benefited from Arik Kislin's informal advice and generosity for years, and I am pleased to welcome him to a more formal advisory capacity with his position on the board.

About Be'er Hagolah Institutes

Be'er Hagolah Institutes was established in 1979 to assist newly arrived immigrant families from the former Soviet Union. Recognized throughout the nation as the preeminent school for immigrant Russian children, its many social service and educational programs include elementary and secondary schools, weekend retreats, and other events to help families in the cultural acclimation process. Be'er Hagolah accepts students regardless of financial need.

Be'er Hagolah Institute

Contact: Ken Frydman, 212.239.8678 ken@sourcecommunications.net

###

Contact Information:

Linx Industries

Ken Frydman

212-239-8678

ken@sourcecommunications.net

www.linxind.com

Online Version of Press Release:

You can read the online version of this press release at: <http://www.pr.com/press-release/77977>