

New Falcon Floral Designer to Give Portion of Profits to Care and Share

Owner, Amber Mustain has decided that a portion of the profits at Beautiful Expressions will be given to Care and Share. Not only will a portion of the profits from the Grand Opening on April 26th be donated, but on a monthly basis after that--permanently.

Colorado Springs, CO, April 24, 2008 --(PR.com)-- Beautiful Expressions, a new flower shop in Falcon, CO is scheduled for it's Grand Opening this coming Saturday, April 26, 2008 from 10:00 AM to 4:00PM. The store, located in The Falcon Town Center at 7661 McLaughlin Rd., changed ownership this last Monday. New owner, Amber Mustain of Colorado Springs, is excited to join the community and wants to give back to the Southern Colorado communities that she will serve. Mustain has decided that a portion of the profits at Beautiful Expressions will be given to Care and Share. Not only will a portion of the profits from the Grand Opening on April 26th be donated, but on a monthly basis after that--permanently. Mustain states, "While there is hardship all over the world, there are families and children right here in Southern Colorado that need just as much help."

With 12 years experience in floral design, Beautiful Expressions specializes in floral design and incorporating linens and décor for weddings,. However, unique gifts and personalized arrangements are never in short supply, therefore customers never have to worry about showing up at a shower, birthday or special event with a duplicate gift.

Grand Opening Festivities include: Free coffee and baked goods, 10% off coupons for early customers, Mothers Day gift cards, as well as a drawing for a large custom gift basket.
