

NuU Medspa Join the Battle to Fight Autism and Raise Awareness

NuU Lend Their Voice to Autism Speaks at Walk Now for Autism – Chicago, Sunday, May 18

Oak Brook, IL, May 17, 2008 --(PR.com)-- NuU Medspa is proud to be a supporter of the Chicago 2008 Walk Now for Autism, Sunday, May 18 at Soldier Field. Driven by families and volunteers who have been affected by this complex disorder, Walk Now for Autism is a great way to donate your time while building life-long bonds with new friends.

Walk Now for Autism, the nation's largest grassroots autism walk program, is Autism Speaks' signature fundraising and awareness event. On Sunday, May 18, the walk will take place in Chicago, IL at the historical Soldier Field. The mission of Walk Now for Autism is to not only generate funds for research for this disorder, but create awareness on the prevalence of Autism.

Norm Valine, president of NuU Medspa, says, “Everyone makes a difference in the walk...one-by-one strangers flock together to support a cause that affects millions worldwide - it's a beautiful thing.” He adds, “I'm glad NuU can be a part of making a difference in millions lives...”

NuU Medspa is compelled to reach out and donate their efforts to help a great cause that greatly affects America and their loved ones. “There are multiple ways to donate and do your part - whether it's a corporate outing or a school function; every effort helps,” states Mr. Valine.

NuU will participate as a Community Resource Fair Vendor to educate the public about services they offer such as; medical-grade facials, laser hair-removal and more. NuU understands the importance of health and maintaining positive thinking and being proactive for positive outcomes.

2008 Walk Now for Autism, expects over 18,000 participants and more walkers this year than previous years.
