

Jacksonville Based Psychic Medium Takes Times Union Center Stage

Tickets are now on sale via Ticketmaster for nationally renowned psychic-medium, Chuck Bergman, “The Messenger” who will appear at the Times Union Center June 12, 2008 at 7P.

Jacksonville, FL, May 20, 2008 --(PR.com)-- Tickets are now on sale via Ticketmaster for nationally renowned psychic-medium, Chuck Bergman, “The Messenger” who will appear at the Times Union Center June 12, 2008 at 7P.

Bergman, sought out by movie stars, millionaires and people who work for NASA, is one of only a handful of psychic mediums personally endorsed by psychic James Van Praagh on his website. Van Praagh is Executive Producer of the hit CBS TV series The Ghost Whisperer and author of the recently released book, Ghosts Among Us.

Bergman who has had the “gift” of speaking with the “other side” since the age of five is also a retired police officer having served 32 years on the force in of all places; Salem, Massachusetts. Bergman says his long career as a cop helps him separate himself from the tragedy he sometimes encounters in his readings. But mostly what he hears over and over is people saying they would give anything to have one more day with the people they love.

In his first appearance at the Times Union Center as The Messenger Chuck Bergman, he will be taping a pilot for television. A book is also well underway. “The time is now” says Bergman, “People seem to be reaching out and becoming more spiritual and open and the response has been phenomenal”.

Tickets are available now at the Times Union Center Box Office (904) 630-3900, all Ticketmaster outlets and online at ticketmaster.com
