

MyAutoPartsForLess, a Division of Auto Parts Solutions, Inc., Awarded Automotive & Truck Parts Contract by Dallas Area Rapid Transit

MyAutoPartsForLess.com, a certified Minority Business Enterprise and Small Business has been awarded a highly coveted automotive and truck parts contract by Dallas Area Rapid Transit (DART). DART serves Dallas and 12 surrounding cities with approximately 130 bus routes, 45 miles of light rail transit (DART Rail), 75 freeway miles of high occupancy vehicle (HOV) lanes, and paratransit service for the mobility impaired.

Dallas, TX, May 20, 2008 --(PR.com)-- My Auto Parts For Less (MAPFL) is presently engaged in a multi-year automotive and truck parts contract with Dallas Area Rapid Transit (DART). DART operates approximately 130 bus routes covering 13 cities and 700-square miles. The contract designates MAPFL as DART's preferred vendor for their Non Revenue Vehicle fleet, which comprises over 500 cars and light-duty trucks. MAPFL will supply the prominent transportation agency with items such as: a/c compressors, brake parts, spark plugs, and suspension parts. The contract also allows for the supply of chemicals, lubricants, and oils.

Furthermore, My Auto Parts For Less also impressively took the lead role in developing an electronic parts catalog for DART, which allows for 24 hour access to MAPFL's parts inventory. MAPFL's Software Design Team created the website, integrated DART-specific features, and continues to offer ongoing customer support.

MAPFL is emerging as a rising star in the aftermarket parts business. The company continues to focus on superior customer service and strives to add value to all of its commercial, fleet and governmental customers.
