

Days of the Tsar

Join the revolution with Days of the Tsar. Platinum Play Online Casino's latest slot unlocks the riches of the Romanovs.

Belize City, Belize, June 04, 2008 --(PR.com)-- Priceless Faberge eggs, the distinctive onion domes of St Basil's, seals with the double-headed eagle of Imperial Russia and bejewelled aristocrats immediately give away the colourful and original theme of Platinum Play Online Casino's latest 5 reel, 25 pay-line slot Days Of The Tsar.

But there's nothing historic about the advanced technology powering this state-of-the-art online gambling gem, which offers players the chance to win big-time, with Wilds, Scatters, up to 25 Free Spins, Multipliers and a Gamble feature where bottom line winnings can be quadrupled on the right card suit call.

The last of the Romanov Tsars, Nicholas, is the Wild in this enthralling game set against the backdrop of the privileged Eastern emperor's reign. His passion for intricately crafted jewelled eggs is reflected in the Scatter nature of the famous Faberge masterpieces which trigger the Free Spins; each appearing with a random number. Add the numbers, and up to 25 Free Spins are delivered, with one spin added for each egg achieved in free spins.

Those Free Spins are the road to the Romanov riches, doubling prizes.

The Russian aristocracy were partial to a flutter on the cards, and this is represented in the final Gamble feature, where the player can double winnings by calling the right colour, or quadruple gains by getting the suit right.

Days of the Tsar captures a turbulent period in Russian history to make an interesting background for a 21st century game that offers good chances for reward and takes players on a troika ride full of fun and entertainment - visit Platinum Play Online Casino to join the Revolution today.
