

Educational Gifts Provide Tasteful Alternatives

The Cookie Cupboard has just introduced a complete line of educational gift baskets and gifts that combine the wonder of learning with the tastiness of gourmet cookies, chocolate and candy.

St. Louis, MO, June 10, 2008 --(PR.com)-- “Educational gift baskets have given our customers a refreshing alternative to other nondescript gift baskets that are currently being offered,” says Melodee Lang, president of The Cookie Cupboard, LLC. “Recipients are able to enjoy the tasty treats as well as have a treasured keepsake that will foster a lifetime of learning.”

Gift basket themes include fine art, classical music, history and children's literature. The gift baskets are designed using books, bookmarks, magnets, puppets, stuffed animals, action figures, activity books and of course scrumptious Cookie Cupboard cookies and other gourmet treats. All gift basket components have met or exceeded the high standards of excellence as established by The Cookie Cupboard.

The gift basket selection is varied and rich in quality and culture. Choices range from Renoir, Monet, Degas, Van Gogh, Vermeer and Redoute in the fine art gift line to Mozart, Beethoven and Bach in the music gift line. History gifts and gift baskets that are available include Ancient Egypt, Ancient Greece, Ancient Rome, Medieval Times, Castles & Knights and Pirates. Children's literature gift baskets and gifts are also available. Gift baskets offered in this line include Beowulf, Brer Rabbit, Pinocchio, Mother Goose, If You Give a Mouse a Cookie, Peter Rabbit, Curious George and Sesame Street. Eyewitness Books are also offered in sports gift baskets. Children can explore sports facts and history as a part of their gift.

The Cookie Cupboard is a St. Louis based provider of distinctive and elegant gift baskets and gifts. Nationwide delivery is available for all gifts. Same day delivery is available for recipients in the St. Louis metropolitan area. Everyday gift selections include baby, birthday, corporate, get well, sympathy, thank you and wedding. The online gift shop offers full size greeting cards, balloons, gourmet chocolate and nuts. Holiday gifts are also offered.
