

The Newest Cell Phone Technology is Available at Cellhut

One of the internet's leading sellers of unlocked phones is having a sale on their most advanced phones this Father's Day.

New York, NY, June 12, 2008 --(PR.com)-- This Father's Day, give the gift of wireless technology and have the man in your life celebrate the timeless magic of a new cell phone. Cellhut is having a special sale on the newest cell phones technologies. Buying the latest in cell phone technology doesn't necessarily mean that hundreds of dollars have to be spent. Today's best features can be had for a small and reasonable price.

All the phones featured in the sale over the price of $179.99 are shipped for free. This is just one aspect of the sale that demands to be taken advantage of.

At the high-end, the Samsung U600 is available for $224.99. This slider phone has great features such as a 3.15 Megapixel Camera and EDGE compatibility. The sleek design of the U600 makes it a desirable phone to have.

At the middle-end, the LG KG290 is available for $128.99. This Tri-Band phone has a slider mechanism that gives it an air of sophistication. The 1.3 Megapixel camera takes pictures in great quality. Finally some other features of the phone include a Bluetooth connection and a MicroSD slot for storing files.

If spending more than $100 isn't in the budget, then the Motorola L6 available for $84.99 is the right choice as a present. This phone does most everything the high-end models do but without the high-quality. A sleek form, VGA camera, Bluetooth, and an integrated MP3 Camera come standard with this phone and are all the features you need to shift life into high gear.

All these unlocked phones and other are available from Cellhut at www.cellhut.com

Cellhut places customer satisfaction as its highest priority and promises to make a positive impression on the clientele they do business with. The business of dealing with unlocked mobile phones relies on a high level of technological knowledge that the well-educated support staff is ready to handle. By shopping with Cellhut you choose your phone, not your service.
