

May's AuthorHouse Top-Selling Books Include Inspirational and History Titles

"The Gift that Heals" Remains Among Top Sellers for the Fifth Consecutive Month

Bloomington, IN, June 17, 2008 --(PR.com)-- AuthorHouse, the leading provider of self-publishing and marketing services for authors around the globe, has announced its five top-selling books for May.

"The Gift that Heals" by Reg Green remained in the top sellers list, at number two, for the fifth consecutive month. Published jointly by the United Network for Organ Sharing (UNOS) and the Nicholas Green Foundation, the book tells the poignant stories of dozens who have received life-saving organ and tissue transplants.

The five top-selling AuthorHouse titles for May 2008:

1. "Great Women Exploring Nature: How Wild Florida Influenced Their Lives"

by Linda Taylor

Modern women are tied to the natural beauty of Florida through the lives and experiences of ten historically influential women.

2. "The Gift That Heals" by Reg Green

These short stories focus on organ transplants through the recipients' inspirational stories.

3. "A Canyon Trilogy: Life Before, During and After the Cedar Fire"

by Chi Varnado

A family recalls their survival of the 2003 Cedar Fire, which destroyed thousands of buildings and killed 15 people.

4. "Spiritual Gumbo for the Hungry Heart"

by George A. Todd, Jr.

Members of a California church who believed they were far beyond the reach of religion recount their personal discoveries of faith, love, hope, and forgiveness.

5. "Halfway Home"

by Felicia Pringle Hopkins, CHP (Major) Retired

Hopkins recounts her tour of duty during Operation Iraqi Freedom.

These titles, and the complete AuthorHouse library, are available for purchase through the online AuthorHouse bookstore. To learn how to publish a book today, log on to authorhouse.com or call 888-519-5121 today.
