

Cellhut and the Art of the Sale

One of the internet's leading sellers of unlocked phones is having a sale on the latest models from Sony, RIM, and HTC.

New York, NY, June 17, 2008 --(PR.com)-- Special savings come naturally to Cellhut. A company that prides itself in giving its customers the best possible treatment, Cellhut is always ready to reward the regulars who return to the company to find the best deals on unlocked Nokia, Sony, and Samsung phones. By selling only the most reliable phones that take advantage of the latest technology, the company's website is stocked with phones that will make the user's life much more productive.

RIM, HTC, and LG phones are also included in the sale because they rank among Cellhut's top selling phones. With the BlackBerry Bold to be released in the coming months and the enthusiasm that is being generated about many features of the phone including its new UI and 3G connectivity, it's looking like the Bold is set to become the best selling phone of the summer. The BlackBerry Bold is on preorder for $719.99.

The Sony Xperia with its slide out QWERTY keyboard is fast becoming a popular phone. Excitement is being generated about this Windows Mobile phone and the possibilities for interactivity. The touchscreen responds miraculously to the slightest touch and the main screen has windows that can be organized in any order, to facilitate a faster sense of efficiency. The Sony Xperia is on preorder for $899.99

HTC's Touch Diamond is already available to purchase and is a singular reinvention of the touchphone. The small form factor and TouchFlo software give the Touch Diamond an edge over competitors such as the iPhone. The User Interface is incredibly easy to use and will be a breeze for anyone to get used to. There are 4 Gigabytes of internal storage that can be used to store a variety of files including music and movies. The HTC Touch Diamond is available for $749.99.
