

Kingdom Holding Company Signs Contract with Texas Woman for VVIP Aircraft

MAV Aircraft Services, Inc is proud to announce the contractual alliance with Kingdom Holdings to create per specification the recertification and completion of their newly acquired Airbus 321 to that of a VVIP aircraft. The aircraft has already been delivered to MAV's Fort Worth facility. The contract was finalized and signed by His Royal Highness Prince Alwaleed bin Talal and MAV President Tohnni Jones in Sharm El Sheik Egypt.

Fort Worth, TX, June 27, 2008 --(PR.com)-- MAV Aircraft Services, Inc is proud to announce the contractual alliance with Kingdom Holdings to create per specification the recertification and completion of their newly acquired Airbus 321 to that of a VVIP aircraft. The aircraft has already been delivered to MAV's Fort Worth facility, and the completion effort has begun. MAV acknowledges the efforts of Kingdom Holding, major vendors, and of course the MAV team for the successful joint effort required to bring this project to fruition. The contract was finalized and signed by His Royal Highness Prince Alwaleed bin Talal and MAV President Tohnni Jones in Sharm El Sheik Egypt. As with all of MAV's endeavors, it is MAV's sincere effort to ally with Kingdom Holdings Company, Namely Pete Viljoen, pilot for the A321, to assure a successful and beautiful completion on a timely basis and add Kingdom Holdings Company to their ever growing list of committed and loyal clients.
