

Natosha S. Dooling Recognized by Strathmore's Who's Who Worldwide Publication

Davie, FL May 30, 2013 --(PR.com)-- Natosha S. Dooling of Davie, Florida has been included in the Strathmore's Who's Who Worldwide Edition for her outstanding contributions and achievements in the field of publishing.

About Natosha S. Dooling

Mrs. Dooling is the CEO of Sportsality, which is a sports magazine published in the Fort Lauderdale, Florida area. She publishes this monthly magazine targeting the personal side of professional sports players and the charities they sponsor. Mrs. Dooling is inspired by her husband, Keyon Dooling, of the NBA Celtics. She is also the founder of N-Zone, a charity that helps provide college scholarships and develop character in disadvantaged young women through etiquette instruction, job training and college preparatory courses. N-Zone was created out of her desire to influence young girls ages 6-18. Her vision is to educate, empower and motivate these young women to strive for success. Mrs. Dooling has published 1 book, "My Eyes and My Hair." She is affiliated with N-Zone Foundation and Respect Foundation. In each of her projects, Mrs. Dooling 's goal is to "pay it forward" by helping others and to represent the positive attributes shared by many people associated with professional sports—based on love, charity and values. She was born on January 5 in Fort Lauderdale, Florida and married Keyon Dooling on July 22, 2001. They have four children, Deneal, Gabrielle, Jordan and Keyon. Mrs. Dooling attended Florida College of Natural Health and became a Licensed Aesthetician in 2006. In her spare time she enjoys physical fitness and family activities.
