

BlankMediaPrinting.com Official Donor to Give Kids The World

BlankMediaPrinting.com is proud to be the official donor of Give Kids The World for all their custom printed CDs and DVDs.

Orlando, FL December 16, 2014 --(PR.com)-- BlankMediaPrinting.com is proud to be the official custom-printed CD and DVD donor to Give Kids The World.

Give Kids The World Village is a 70-acre, nonprofit “storybook” resort located near Orlando in Kissimmee, Florida, near the area’s attractions and theme parks. Here, children with life-threatening illnesses and their families are treated to weeklong, cost-free fantasy vacations.

While the families are at the village and the theme parks photographers take photos and videos of their experiences so they can remember their time together. BlankMediaPrinting.com will provide custom copies of their digital media, photos and videos. These will be customized with a printed design and packaging.

BlankMediaPrinting’s automated CD and DVD printing processes will save Give Kids The World hundreds of man hours placing self-adhesive CD and DVD labels.

“We are so happy to be able to provide our services for such a worthy organization,” said Tony Jeffries, President of BlankMediaPrinting.com. “As neighbors in Central Florida we have a special opportunity to help Give Kids the World and the families they support. We can provide them with a really great quality disc that will forever be a symbol of their trip. We’re happy that they can devote the extra money and time devoted to creating these discs to making the experience of the children and their families more memorable.”
