

Massage Therapy School Classes Start March 2, 2015 in Chicago

Massage therapy schools course start date announcement - European Massage Therapy School - After 18 years training massage students to develop new therapeutic skills and enjoy a career change, EMTS continues as a leader in providing specialized massage coursework to individuals around the Greater Chicago Area.

Skokie, IL February 19, 2015 --(PR.com)-- Massage therapy training at the European Massage Therapy School includes two new program start dates in March of 2015. March 2, 2015 marks the beginning of the next evening class, and March 7, 2015 is when the next weekend class begins their massage therapy training at EMTS.

Massage therapy training professionals at EMTS can help you get started quickly along your path to becoming a massage therapist. Call 847-673-7595 today to discover affordable training by the best massage therapy instructors at this well-known, accredited, specialized school. Beyond the weekend and evening course times, also call for information on available daytime massage class times and dates.

Begin a New Career in Massage Therapy

Hands-on training in massage therapy, as well as a well-rounded education in physiology, anatomy, kinesiology, pathology, business practices, professional ethics, and other modalities, are all a part of the training programs delivered at European Massage Therapy School, conveniently located off of I-94 Highway in Skokie, IL, inside the Westfield Old Orchard Shopping Center.

Adults considering a career change who seek improvement in their life find the flexibility provided at EMTS enables their ability to make the move toward achieving positive change and enjoying a fulfilling career with a flexible working schedule.

Small Massage Class Sizes, Affordable Tuition, Flexible Schedules, Proven Curriculum, Best Instructors

All European Massage Therapy School classes are limited in size to ensure the most effective one-on-one instruction can be provided to each student by experienced professors.

European Massage Therapy School Director stated, "We've maintained small class sizes to deliver the best level of training to each student from the beginning. This is a very important part of making sure our students are confident and competent when they enter their new working environment."

For more than eighteen years, EMTS has been one of Chicago's top quality massage schools. For a few more days, applications will be reviewed and accepted for the upcoming March 2 and March 7, 2015 program start dates. Call 847-673-7595 today to find the class schedule and massage training course to best fit your lifestyle and career goals. The friendly, knowledgeable massage therapy school staff is available to help individuals interested in becoming students of massage today.

Contact Information:

European Massage Therapy School

Arkady Khazin

847-673-7595

Contact via Email

school-for-massage.com

Online Version of Press Release:

<https://www.pr.com/press-release/606549>