State-of-the-Art Innovative Indoor Playground Opening in Sandy Springs on October 13

Ready, Set, Fun! brings together augmented reality experiences with innovative play spaces to spark creativity and imagination for children ages 1 to 12. This unique indoor playground includes augmented reality playrooms, children’s yoga, kid's cooking classes and parent series offered for the ultimate holistic family experience.

Atlanta, GA, October 09, 2019 --(PR.com)-- Ready, Set, Fun!, a new age interactive family entertainment center will open its doors to a new kind of fun for Atlanta area families by providing plenty of adventure-driven augmented reality (AR) spaces and classes to foster creativity and learning among children, while also giving parents a clean, contemporary space to learn, socialize, work and even relax.

“Our unique play spaces are not only fun, but also beneficial in developing hand-eye coordination and motor function,” said Founder and Creative Director, Hedi Toub. Augmented Reality play spaces include:

Imagination Art
Watch children's masterpieces come alive in front of your eyes in animation form on the big screen.

Imagination Sandbox
Children won't believe their eyes when they uncover all sorts of creatures, and unchartered territories as they move their hands in the ultimate sandbox powered by super cool light technology.

Wall of Movement
Children will pop hot air balloons, make graffiti, and save the ocean with our magical Wall of Movement that utilizes light sensor technology.

What the Ground?
Look down to the ground for a can't believe your eyes type of adventure. Our cool light sensor technology is used to stimulate creativity and play among children 1 and older.

Just Dance
The perfect day club for your kids, outfitted with dance music, cool disco lights and all their friends.

In addition to unique play spaces, Ready, Set, Fun! offers children 6 months to 12 years of age a wide gamut of classes to further their development and interest in yoga, music and cooking, such as:

Mommy & Me Yoga Class
Moms can come find their center, relax and bond with their baby through postures and breathing techniques.

Little Yogi's
