

YourGroups Launches Challenge for 21 Ambitious Business Students and Graduates to Earn Shareholder Status and Career Opportunities

San Diego, CA September 21, 2025 --(PR.com)-- YourGroups, the all-in-one platform for building and managing dynamic online communities, is putting out a bold challenge to students and graduates: prove your business acumen, grow a thriving group(s), and earn a stake in a fast-growing tech startup—plus the opportunity for future employment.

Whether you're rallying around a hobby, a cause, NPOs, PTAs, Healthcare Providers, Schools, Social Influencers or just want to stay connected, YourGroups empowers users to:

Connect: Create or join public and private groups tailored to your passions.

Collaborate: Seamlessly share documents, schedule events, share photos, and videos within your group.

Organize: Plan events, manage tasks, and streamline group communication.

Achieve: Foster real engagement and drive results through shared goals.

Monetize: Group Owners earn a share of ad profits—income grows with your group's size and activity.

Now, YourGroups is calling on the next generation of business leaders to help shape the future of online communities. The Business Student/Graduate Shareholder Challenge offers a unique opportunity to get in on the ground floor—as a shareholder and a potential leader within the company.

Here's how to enter:

Visit www.YourGroups.com and create an account.

Start your own group and become its Group Owner.

Inside your group, type: Shareholder Challenge

From there, the YourGroups team will be in touch. If you can create a profitable group(s) and are one of the top 21 performers you will be compensated with company shares. Top performers will also be considered for future leadership roles within the organization.

Think you've got what it takes to be part of the next big social platform?
